GBS PHD STUDENTS: USE OF EMORY LIBRARIES' LICENSED ELECTRONIC RESOURCES

Emory University Libraries license electronic resources (e.g. databases, electronic journals, e-books, etc.) for use by current Emory University faculty, students and staff. The use of licensed electronic resources is for academic courses and research, career/interview research and personal enrichment only, and not for commercial purposes, e.g. employers, internships, consulting, etc. This policy applies to all library licensed electronic resources, whether they are accessed on campus or from a remote location.

Emory's ability to provide access, authorize use, and permit reproduction of licensed electronic resources is governed by contractual license agreements and U.S. Copyright Law. Misuse or violation of these restrictions may result in the termination of access to the electronic resource; each user is responsible for complying with the terms and conditions of these licenses and may be liable for any copyright infringement he or she may commit.

You are additionally legally prohibited from:

- Systematically downloading, saving, or distributing significant portions of these licensed electronic resources beyond what is allowed by copyright and/or the license.
- Systematically downloading database content using robots, scripts, or other software programs

Failure to comply with Emory's Library Licensed Electronic Resources Conditions of Use policy may have legal consequences and may result in suspension or termination of access; and disciplinary actions in accordance with applicable university policy. Statement of Intent

I will not use robots, scripts, or other software programs to generate searches and mine content.

I will not systematically download, save or distribute significant portions of these electronic resources beyond what is allowed by copyright and/or the licensing agreement.

I understand that my use of the Goizueta Business Library and other Emory Libraries' licensed databases is restricted to appropriate academic research, career/interview-related research, and personal enrichment.

I will not use the Goizueta Business Library and other Emory Libraries' licensed databases for any other activities, including but not necessarily limited to consulting, an employer, or internship.

This policy applies to all library licensed electronic resources, whether they are accessed on campus or from a remote location.

I understand that the information in the databases is copyrighted and that even use for academic or personal applications must comply with the copyright laws.
